NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that the Governing Board of Sonoma Charter School will conduct a public hearing regarding the school's 2026–2027 Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP).

The purpose of the public hearing is to provide an opportunity for parents, students, staff, bargaining units, and community members to review and comment on the proposed LCAP prior to its adoption by the Governing Board.

The LCAP is a three-year planning document that describes the school's goals, actions, services, and expenditures designed to support positive student outcomes and address state and local priorities. The plan reflects stakeholder input and outlines how resources will be used to improve student achievement, engagement, and school climate.
